

Roush Brings in Mark Trostle as Head of Design Studio

06/09/2011 17:06 by admin

As always, Roush is determined to keep a fast pace regarding design in order to be one step ahead with its creations. Thus, Roush announced that D. Mark Trostle will lead their automotive design team at their state of art Michigan design studio. Furthermore, Trostle will apply his 40 years of experience in the automotive industry.

He will be involved in Roush's OEM studio projects, their Speciality vehicle Group's restoration, and future performance vehicles and components. Trostle's experien... [...]
