

2012 Audi A6 Avant by ABT Sportsline Unveiled

06/09/2011 18:07 by admin

ABT Sportline, the world's biggest customizer of Audi models, recently unveiled their program for the brand new A6 Avant. From the looks of things, this is now the coolest big boat of a car out there, especially given its new, more masculine chin and headlights that look like squinting eyes.

ABT calls their kit the AS6 Avant and offers a number of cosmetic changes that start with a custom rear spoiler and a rear apron that integrates the four exhaust pipes. Their design is somewhat rectangular... [...]
