

Heffner Unleashes Twin Turbo Ferrari 458

06/09/2011 20:07 by admin

The guys over at Heffner Performance have an obsession for twin turbo-ing everything that has an engine. These people just dream about a project at night. come to the shop next morning and make it happen. They have made many owners happy, changing their cars beyond recognition with the mighty power of psi.

Now, Heffner Performance has released a twin turbo kit for the Ferrari 458 Italia, offering a lot of extra muscle (the power premium is equivalent to the total output of a hothatch) for the... [...]
