

RS Tuning Releases 320 hp Renault Megane RS

06/09/2011 21:08 by admin

We've recently tested the Renault Megane RS 250 Cup and discovered one of the best hot hatches in the world, However, it seems that there are some for whom the 250 hp of the car aren't enough. To be more specific, we are talking about the UK aftermarket developer RS Tuning, which has just revealed the Stage 2 tuning package for the car.

So, what do the Brits offer? Well, the 2.0-liter turbocharged four-cylinder unit has received an alloy Forge Motorsport high flow intercooler, a choice of sport... [...]
