

MEC Design Mercedes SLS AMG Rear Diffuser Presented

07/09/2011 18:13 by admin

Aftermarket developers have a list of favorite toys, with the models here receiving one tuning gift after another, and one of the important names on it is the Mercedes-Benz SLS AMG. The German supercar has just received a new diffuser from MEC Design and is here to show it to us.

As you can see in the adjacent images, we are dealing with a design for which the word bold would be an understatement. We have a lot of aggressive styling cues, which tend to shift the visual focus towards the rear ... [...]
