The upcoming Frankfurt Auto Show will bring us plenty of interesting projects, also creating new connections and we are here now to look at such a development: meet the smart fortwo WeSC.

Here's how the project came to life: smart provided a fortwo, aiming to become more popular among extra-young customers, Brabus brought its usual aftermarket goodies and, last but by no means least, the street fashion brand WeSC bringing individual touches.

You will receive a special edition of the smart ...[...]
