

Project Kahn Audi A5 Coupe Matte Pearl Grey Unleashed

11/09/2011 20:55 by admin

The Brits from Project Kahn are experimenting more and more with other cars than their usual toy, the Range Rover (Sport) and they keep pleasing us with the results. The tuner's latest effort brings in front of us an Audi A5 Coupe that has received a multitude of exterior and interior modifications, coming with a mean attitude.

The German coupe has been gifted with styling elements that borrow their design from that of the Audi R8, including front and rear aprons, a rear spoiler, as well as [...]
