Carlsson know their way around a cool Mercedes like the SL or SLK, but their latest project targets another brand from under the Daimler umbrella. We're talking about smart's now aging fortwo 'coupe'.

The changes are all focused on the cosmetic side of things and the end result is a cool-looking little city runaround, with an interior that's a hundred times cooler than something that left the factory. This features a mix of leather and Alcantara upholstery, the tuner's logos embroidered... [...]
