

Project Kahn Working of Mystery Ford Vehicle

16/09/2011 11:58 by admin

Project Kahn is a British tuner that is proud of its collaborations with English partners, with one of the most important relations of this kind being created with Cosworth back in 2008. Now the aftermarket developer is planing to maker a special appearance, together with its partner at the Ford RS Owners Club national day.

The event, which is scheduled to take place on Sunday 18th September at Donington Park in Derby, will see Project Kahn showcase the RS2000 range of lightweight alloy rims,...[...]

Source: autoevolution