

Bugatti Veyron Tuning Project Teaser from Platinum Motorsport

22/09/2011 16:01 by admin

The tuning world has its special creations and we are now being prepared to meet a new one that plays the aftermarket game at a stratospheric level. Most Bugatti Veyron owners wouldn't dare touch one screw on their car, but, as you can see in the adjacent image, this is not the case here.

US tuner Platinum Motorsport is now working on an aftermarket development based on the Veyron and has sent the adjacent image to the world (we must thank luxury4play) in order to let us enjoy its work from [...]
