

BMW Z4 sDrive23i Flame Edition Launched in China

04/10/2011 15:38 by admin

BMW is treating its Chinese consumers like royalty in the year of the tiger, and we can't say that we're not jealous a bit. We've seen every sort of carbon fiber component, matte paint finish and body modification possible for cars like the M3 and the 5-Series, but now it's time to focus on one of the unsung heroes of the BMW product lineup.

Chinese car fans and middle-class citizens with a bit of cash to spend will surely take notice of the Z4 sDrive23i Flame Edition. The model is based on [...]
