The guys at Novitec know a thing or two about taking a cool Italian car, Alfa, Ferrari or Fiat, and bringing even more soul and passion from the design. This time, they've played with the Maserati GranTurismo MC Stradale to create a bold look and monumental performance.

The big news is that after adding a SUPERSPORT turbocharger, a water-to-air intercooler, a bigger manifold, larger injectors and a remapped ECU, the 4.7-liter V8 now produces a Lamborghini rivaling 646 horsepower and 624 Nm of [...]
