

Prior Design BMW M3 Styling Kit Introduced

06/10/2011 12:57 by admin

The Internet is buzzing with rumors about the upcoming F30 BMW M3, but this doesn't mean that the current incarnation of the model is out of the spotlights. The latest tuning development related to the E90 M3 is an exterior package from Prior Design.

The kit borrows the M3 look to the regular 3 Series sedan, bringing beefier front wings and rear wheel arches, side skirt extensions, as well as new front and rear bumpers. The new elements are made from DURA-FLEX.

In addition to that, custome... [...]
