

SEMA Preview: Another Hyundai Veloster gets Ready for the Tuner Treatment

06/10/2011 22:00 by admin

Joining Hyundai's ARK Performance Veloster Turbo at this year's SEMA Show floors will be yet another specially tuned version of the South Korean maker's sporty hatchback, this one being prepared by digital media distribution company and publisher of Wrecked Magazine, PM Lifestyle. PM Lifestyle's approach, however, will be different as the company teamed up with the students at Universal Technical Institute (UTI) with the goal of presenting modifications that can be "achieved in real-world garages" [...]
