

Schmidt Revolution Boots Up Porsche Cayenne II for the Winter

12/10/2011 17:09 by admin

As we're approaching mid-October, it won't be long before the winter sneaks in altering (at least for some of us) our driving habits. For those Porsche Cayenne II owners that choose to use two different sets of tires, one for the summer and another for the winter period, German tuning house Schmidt Revolution has released a new wheel and tire combination.[...]
