

Skoda Octavia RS Tuned by Milotec

17/10/2011 20:11 by admin

The Golf GTI offers plenty of sensibleness mixed in with the power of a hothatch, but if you want buckets of sensibleness, than the Octavia RS is your best choice. While not as well known across the world as the VW, Skoda's go-fast sedan has a stable following in Europe.

Skoda tuning specialists Milotec have come up with something for the fans - a cosmetic and performance package.

On the performance side of things, Milotec has created a new exhaust system that's supposed to bump power by 5 p...
