The Porsche everybody is talking about right now (and will be in the future) is the new 911. The 991 generation of the rear-engined coupe was the king of the Frankfurt Auto Show that witnessed its official launch and the car continues to get more attention than any other.

However, according to Porsche's model plan, we'll have to wait until we get the spicy versions, so for these ones we still have to tun to the 997 generation. Today, we are giving you an example of the purest form of 911, the...[....]
