America's custom builders are working overtime these days, preparing for the upcoming SEMA event. However, there is one crew that seems to have discovered a secret way of boosting stamina: Tjin Edition.

The tuner has already announced two custom creations for this year's edition of SEMA, with these being based on the Ford Mustang 5.0 GT and on the 2012 Ford Explorer, and is now announcing a new pair of custom goodies.

Tjin Edition will also use the 2011 SEMA show to give us a custom 2012 H... [...]
