

HRE Wheels 790RS Introduced [Video]

21/10/2011 00:44 by admin

HRE Performance Wheels is giving us its latest development, the new 790RS series, a goodie that was design to be used for top supercars.

We are talking about a set of three--piece wheel designs that come with a bold design language, aiming to offer an image booster to the supercars they are fitted to, even if these don't necessarily need one.

We're invitng you to see the adjacent presentation video, in which HRE Wheels president Alan Peltirer explains how the new wheels were created and sho...[...]
