

Ford Focus by Capaldi Racing

21/10/2011 20:53 by admin

The second customized Ford Focus to be displayed at SEMA Show next to the Focus by ROUSH Performance comes from Capaldi Racing. Their package includes significant engine upgrades and an impressive aerodynamic package. For the engine upgrades the tuner s offering: a Borla cat-back dual-outlet exhaust, Ford Racing Performance Parts Torsen differential, Green Filter custom intake, AST Sport-Line suspension and Ford Racing Performance Parts-tuned sway bars. However, the tuner did not revealed the final specs for their car, but you should expect great numbers considering all the changes they have made.[...]
