

Merdad Collection Mer-Nazz: Range Rover Evoque Tuning

24/10/2011 20:25 by admin

We've just tested the Range Rover Evoque and discovered that underneath its coupe skin and SUV ride height, lies a hot hatch (in the 240 hp petrol version we tested). Even though its exterior design is its most extreme aspect, being way above average in general, it seems that British tuning specialist Merdad considers it needs even more aggressive styling cues.

Thus, the tuner is introducing its version of the Evoque coupe/ Dubbed Mer-Nazz, the vehicle comes with redesigned front and rear ... [...]
