

Mulgari Automotive SV BMW 3-Series: New Tuner Born

25/10/2011 04:26 by admin

We're always happy when a new tuning company baby is born and today we are here to give you Mulgari Automotive, an aftermarket specialist based in Bisley, Surrey.

We are talking about a company that uses an all-technical approach, bragging that it uses in-house development to weld, skim, cut, mill, fabricate and modify every part of a car and that it can do almost anything a customer desires.

These are bold claims, with the company insisting that it can fabricate goodies such as carbon part... [...]
