German tuner DMC has done wonders with the look of the Ferrari 458 Italia, and now they are heading down to sunny Las Vegas in order to brag about their achievements. But before they do that, DMC also took the time to show off the Milano styling and performance package during a photo shoot, that they also sent our way.

Now, we have to keep our end of the bargain and bring the custom 458 to the attention of our supercar-loving fans.

Not to be confused with DeLorean Motor Car (also DMC), the... [...]
