We've recently showed you a Mercedes SLR tuning project by Platinum Motorsports and it is now time to get the full details of the goodies, as well as see it in action. We'll start by telling you that this is the world' fastest SLR and to create it, Platinum Motorsport has joined forces with RENNtech, MACarbon and Exotics Boutique.

The German supercar was fitted with a Mansory Renovation bodykit and was then dressed in Liquid White by Platinum Motorsport. Subsequently, it received a multitude ... [...]
