

Cadillac CTS-V Le Monstre to Debut at SEMA With 1,001 HP

30/10/2011 20:00 by admin

The tap that held all the 1,000 horsepower engines in has been released and more and more of them are finding their way into spectacular vehicles making their way to the 2011 SEMA Show in Las Vegas. The latest monster that's able to terrorize the Nevada crowd at its whim is the Cadillac CTS-V Le Monstre.

The creation of The D3 Group boasts something that should impress any visitor, even if he's a Mustang fan. The stock 564 hp 6.2-liter LSA V8 that all Cadillac cars boast has been increased to... [...]

Source: autoevolution