

2011 SEMA: Toyota Tundra Ultimate Motocross Truck

30/10/2011 21:01 by admin

When you hear the names West Coast Customs and DC Shoes, you know that you're in for quite a custom vehicle ride and this really is the case with the Ultimate Motocross Truck, a project that will debut next week at SEMA.

DC Shoes claims that it has relied on feedback from its Motocross athletes in order to create a truck that perfectly caters to the needs of a rider.

West Coast Customs built the project, starting with a Tundra Double Cab 4x4, powered by the 5.7-liter V8 unit, with a strong... [...]
