

2012 Porsche 911 Gulf Livery Rendering Released

31/10/2011 14:39 by admin

We've written about new Porsche 911 on a million occasions, from the first series of spyshots, to the latest official news related to the rear-engined coupe and we'll probably meet the car even more often and the future, as it meaner incarnations, such as the Turbo and the GT3 are set to arrive.

Now, we are here to give you a special rendering of the 991 Porsche 911. The adjacent image, which was created by image manipulator Milanno, shows the new 911 Carrera Gulf Edition.

The vehicle has ...[...]
