There isn't much doubt on whether or not the new Chevrolet Camaro and the Ford Mustang will steal the show in Las Vegas. There will be enough tuning projects representing each muscle car to inundate the rest with numbers alone.

One non-muscle car standout, however, will be the Hyundai Genesis Hurricane SC. We've talked about this project before, but with its 450 HP and its stunning good looks, the Genesis will most likely make visitors forget all about those muscle cars for a little while. The Hurricane SC will also get some help from another customized Hyundai Genesis Coupe, but this time by Rhys Millen Racing (RMR). Previous experience with this tuner has shown us that they really know what they are doing, so they're announcement about having "something extra special planned" for Las Vegas is scintillating news.[...]
