SEMA is ready to welcome its guests this week, and we have an arrival wearing both Mopar and Dodge designations to bring to your attention.

This black on orange creation is the work of Mopar Underground and is called the Tow Hook Concept. It's meant to bring the sort of paint schemes associated with musclecars to the SUV scene. You have a four-cout orange paintjob that offers plenty of deep contrast with the satin black roof.

As for the 22-inch forged wheels, these have been garnished in b... [...]
