

Kia Joins Forces with Antenna Magazine to Build Rio and Forte Specials for SEMA Show

31/10/2011 20:44 by admin

Less than 24 hours before the doors open at the 2011 edition of the Specialty Equipment Manufacturers Association (SEMA) Show and Kia Motors has revealed a pair of tricked concept models that will make their debut in Las Vegas. Both the Rio 5-Door Surf and the Forte 5-Door Hockey were built in partnership with Antenna magazine. Starting with the 2012 Rio, the surf-themed tuning project features a sunset-metallic golden-brown paint along with a custom body kit with a front splitter made of wood that matches the surfboard on the roof, and rear fascia with center-mount exhaust. A set of 17-inch three-piece gold wheels and a Thule roof rack that holds the surfboard complete the look.[...]

Source: Carscoop