

Subaru Impreza Sport 5-Door Accessory Vehicle

01/11/2011 16:52 by admin

The Subaru Impreza 5-Door Accessory Vehicle is in the same boat as its 4-Door counterpart. They're not as much in the way of flash, as they are in previewing to customers what awaits with their new Accessory packages. Compared to the rest of the cars that you're going to catch at the 2011 SEMA Auto Show, this one will probably not make your most memorable list, but that's also not what it went there to do. This car, together with its four-door sibling, will be purely for marketing purposes. The Impreza Sport 5-Door Accessory Vehicle has been dressed in a special Brushed Titanium 3M Scotchpring textured wrap to go with a new mesh grille, an aero splash guard, a front underspoiler, new crossbars, side strakes, a sport spoiler, side window reflectors, and a Yakima fork mounted bike carrier and bike wheel holder.[...]

Source: topspeed