Anytime you have an audio system get the green light from an automaker to customize one of their cars, you know that the focus will be on enhancing the car's audio set-up. That's exactly what Kicker Audio did with the Subaru WRX STI 5-Door. To be fair, the car still comes with some exterior details, including blue and black body graphics that cover major parts of the car's white exterior finish, Eibach lowering springs, and a new set of 18" Konig Black Lightning wheels wrapped on General Tires Exclaim.[...]
