

Mazda MX-5 Spyder Debuts at 2011 SEMA [Photo Gallery]

01/11/2011 18:53 by admin

The SEMA show is ready to cater to all our custom car needs, but we have to admit that many creations presented at the event come with a bit too many features for our taste. However, there are certain projects that really show good taste and which we'd really love to include in our garage.

One example is the Mazda MX-5 Spyder, which has now been fully revealed. The vehicle's design has been significantly modified through the use of a single-piece soft top, which brings a sleeker profile.[...]

Source: autoevolution