

Sonic Boom: Chevy Rocks the SEMA with One More Concept of its Subcompact Model

02/11/2011 15:08 by admin

The 30 or so Sonic and Cruze concepts along with the numerous Camaro project cars that have been presented at this week's SEMA Show, haven't stopped the flow of new Chevrolet exhibits in Las Vegas. As you can probably guess by its name, the Sonic Boom is all about sound. The subcompact model features an audio system developed by Chevrolet and Kicker with its design and component placing said to be inspired by jet engines.[...]
