

Kia Optima Hybrid Griffin

02/11/2011 20:10 by admin

Everyone knows that hybrid cars are firstly being built for being environmental friendly and second for great look or performance. But this special Kia Optima Hybrid Griffin is the perfect proof that absolutely any car in the world can look great if you know the changes it needs. The car has been developed by Kia in cooperation with West Coast Customs as a tribute to Blake Griffin - the company's official spokesperson. And as you might have expected the car features a basketball-themed, with custom orange paint scheme combined with 20"matte black wheels and Griffin's personal logo on the hood.[...]

Source: topspeed