

Project Kahn Throws a Lotus Elise in the Game

14/01/2009 09:17 by Tuning - AutoEvolution

Project Kahn, the famous car-tuner, is at it again and his latest creation is a styling package for the handling god, the Lotus Elise. The goal of the transformation is to make yourself noticed in the world with your pimped Lotus Elise.

The car has been fitted with a full aerodynamic body styling package that helps the car produce even more downforce. The front spoiler, ventilated front wings, side sills, rear spoiler and large side intake ducts have all been modified to make the...
