If you weren't impressed by a couple of Mazda2 and MX-5 concepts that came to SEMA this year, maybe a hot version of the Mazda5 minivan will change the way you feel.

This strange mix between family practicality and racy graphics is called the Mazda5 Mazda Raceway Laguna Seca support vehicle. The car offers a bunch of strange graphics on the side that upon closer inspection reveal themselves as being the actual track.

The Mazda5 now sits on a set of flat-black-painted 19-inch Mazda RX-8 R3-...[...]
