

Senner Customizes Opel Astra

07/11/2011 14:53 by admin

Opel just revealed the OPC version of the Astra with 280 hp last week, and the GTC looks sexy enough in our honest opinion, so if you're looking at the Senner Tuning version of the Astra five-door hatch, you must really have a taste for the strange.

The German tuners have created a fresh styling package for the compact Opel model, which consists of a Steinmetz front grille, a fresh front spoiler with ground effects, some beefy side skirts with carbon-look inserts and a big diffuser round the ... [...]
