The Lamborghini Gallardo is the latest vehicle to be targeted by Slovenian exhaust specialist Akrapovic, which has released a slip-on exhaust system for the Raging Bull's most popular model.

The new exhaust can be ordered for the LP560-4, LP560-4 Spyder, LP550-2 Valentino Balboni, LP570-4 Superleggera, and the LP570-4 Performante.

Since we are talking about a titanium development, we not also get more muscle (the goodies squeezes out an extra 15 hp and 27 Nm/ 20 lb-ft from the V10 engine),... [...]
