

Startech-Tuned Range Rover Evoque to Debut at Dubai Motor Show

10/11/2011 02:54 by admin

The Evoque is not only Range Rover's newest and smallest model but also a uniquely designed crossover that heralds a new philosophy for the British brand. Startech, a sub-brand of Mercedes-Benz specialist Brabus, has developed an on-road oriented tuning package for both the three- and five-door versions the Evoque, which will make its debut at this week's 2011 Dubai International Motor Show.[...]
