

Lorinser Infiniti FX Launched

12/11/2011 00:08 by admin

Lorinser usually likes to play with vehicles that wear a Mercedes-Benz badge, but the company has recently decided to also target Japan, offering us a package for the Infiniti FX, with the development targeting the exterior styling and the interior of the crossover.

The Infiniti FX has been dressed in a body kit consisting of a redesigned front fascia with LED daytime running lights, a new rear bumper, which accommodates two double exhaust tips and a roof spoiler.

The vehicle now rides on ... (read more)
