The Ford Bronco was first launched onto the market in 1966 where it reveled in 30 years of production, until being discontinued in 1996. But after 15 years of non-existence, the Bronco has come back with a specially customized unit at the 2011 SEMA Auto Show. The tuned-up Ford Bronco is the product of Jonathan Ward and famous Ford designer, Camilo Pardo's hard work. The two men wanted to maintain the original Bronco's classic aesthetic and design values, while also reinventing everything about the car down to the smallest details. The Icon Bronco uses a 2011 Ford Coyote 5.0 liter V8 engine that delivers a total of 412 HP and 390 lb-ft of torque, more than doubling the original Bronco's output of 200 HP. The engine is mated to a five-speed manual transmission and an Atlas II part-time four-wheel drive system.[...]
