

Audi R8 Toxique by TC Concepts Pricing Announced

16/11/2011 16:31 by admin

Last week, we brought you one of the coolest body kits for the Audi R8 we had ever seen - the Toxique created by TC Concepts. This sick custom job brought the same sort of huge intakes that Audi's RS models have, some feathered in inlets down the side and an awesome diffuser at the back.

Now, full details of the kit have been brought forth, including pricing. Only 25 kits will ever be made to conserve the exclusivity. The changes cover a new front bumper, side skirts, flared wheel arches and ... [...]
