

Ferrari 458 Italia Rides on Pur Wheels

16/11/2011 18:33 by admin

It's pretty difficult to visually tune a Ferrari 458 Italia and get it right, as the supercar offers just the right mix of ingredients to make your mind go wild as it comes from the factory. However, the situation dramatically changes when you throw in a set of custom rims, which not only change the looks, but also bring a bit of extra tech value to the car.

Case in point with the adjacent images, which show a 458 sitting on PUR Design rims. The supercar has been fitted with a set of 1NE whee... [...]
