

AC Schnitzer ACS6 Coupe Headed for Essen

23/11/2011 20:35 by admin

A bit earlier, we showed what AC Schnitzer can do the the BMW 1-Series F20 and it is now time to see what the German tuner has to offer for the 6-Series, with this program also set to debut at the Essen Motor Show.

Dubbed ASC6 Coupe, the tuning kit starts with an ECU remap and a rear silencer finished in chrome for the 650i, which brings the V8 unit's power up from 407 to 540 hp (we'll remind you that the M5 delivers 560 hp), allowing the coupe to complete the 0 to 62 mph (100 km/h) sprint i... [...]

Source: autoevolution