

Caractere Audi A1 is Here

24/11/2011 14:15 by admin

The Audi A1 is getting its fair share of aftermarket development and we are now here to give you the latest one, a set of visual and tech changes coming from Caractere.

The Belgian tuner offers lowering springs for the entry-level Audi model, as well as multiple types of lightweight alloy rims (the ones you see here are the CW1 model, in an 18-inch size).

The A1 has also been gifted with a reworked front fascia, a diffuser, as well as chromed tailpipes that are suitable for the 1.2 TSI an... [...]
