Its true that the BMW M3 E92 caught all the attention lately, but the "old" E90 is still as impressive as the E92. So you shouldn't be surprised about the fact that the American tuner SR Auto Group decided to offer an update package for it. And as any sports car look better in black, this is the color uses for this "Sinister M3." When it comes about a great sports car one of the first thing that catches your attention are the wheels. And for this package SR dropped the standard ones and replaced them with a new set from BBS. The wheels are in CH-R design and of course they are painted in black.[...]
