

Brabus Celebrates 2012 Mercedes-Benz M-Class Tune at Essen Motor Show:

25/11/2011 16:27 by admin

Brabus has arrived at this year's Essen Motor Show with a new tuning program for the latest generation of Mercedes-Benz's M-Class SUV. Starting with the visual upgrades, the German tuner has developed a comprehensive aero package that includes a front apron, side skirts, a front fender attachment with an illuminated Brabus logo, a rear apron with a diffuser and an available roof spoiler.[...]
