

Christmas Gifts 2011: Renntech Carbon Fiber Accessories

07/12/2011 22:17 by admin

Now that the Holiday Season is here, you should take some time to buy at least one gift for your car. US tuner Renntech knows that you're busy and is here to save some of your time.

The aftermarket developer has some suggestions.... some carbon fiber suggestions. This wonder material makes the perfect gift, as it brings both tech and visual benefits, so your four-wheeled baby will be more than happy to find this under the Christmas tree.

Renntech gives us some examples, showing a Mercedes ... [...]
