Wheel specialist Vossen have just released a new video showing the E63 AMG performance saloon sitting pretty on a set of massive 20-inch wheels. These five-spoke bad boys are called Vossen VVS-CV3 Concave Wheels, and their matte graphite color has set off the white body of the E-Class very nicely.

We find it quite fitting that the soundtrack for the video is a classical song reinterpreted by music producer Anno Domini, since this is basically what has happened to the car. If you didn't realiz... [...]
